

Scripture Reflection by Deacon Richard J. Quistorff

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ Jesus,

Taxation is always newsworthy during an election year. These readings are about speaking and listening. They are also about the integrity of both the questioner and responder.

We get a clue to the agenda of the questioners when we read, "The Pharisees went and got advice about how best to trap Jesus." I guess spin doctors were an ancient branch of politics then as they are now. We also learn that they didn't go to Jesus themselves for fear of showing their hand. They sent some of their followers in the company of another group as a further smoke screen. What I believe this reveals is the fear they had of the influence of Jesus.

The opening greeting is a blatant put down in the appearance of flattery. They didn't believe that Jesus was anything other than a dangerous troublemaker, certainly not a prophet much less the Son of God.

The question posed to Jesus was a yearly question they all had. There were always debates going on somewhere about the Jewish obligations under Roman rule. The payment of a poll, or head tax was necessary if the people were to live in relative peace with their Roman overlords. Payment had to be made in Roman currency not Jewish currency, and that was another sore point.

The famous response of Jesus, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God," ended the very short exchange.

These words have been used, over and over again, as a basis for separating Church and state but Matthew's use was much more ordinary. He wanted to show Jesus' wisdom and his ability to use their own arguments to counter the tactics of the opposition.

The second point is much more important. It is about how a disciple lives in a world which does not put the things of God first.

What are the things of "Caesar?" What is the legitimate use of power?

Our tradition holds that the land belongs to God; that we are stewards of God's bounty. Political power is the exercise of stewardship in a collective manner, for the good of the whole planet.

What are the things of God? All things. "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." It would seem that political power must be exercised within the framework of the divine vision for the world.

The church is charged to keep before us the divine vision. The church needs prophets to remind us that regional and national interests have to be placed in the context of the wider vision.

To be a disciple is to be committed to the family of nations. This means being informed about what is happening in the world. The popular media is not committed to accurate unbiased information but to serving commercial interests.

We cannot draw simplistic lines between people as good and bad, as if it were a childish game. To illustrate this we have the story from Isaiah about Cyrus. Cyrus, a Persian king, and natural enemy of the Jewish people is the anointed of God, the liberator of Israel. "My shepherd who fulfills my every wish."

It is God's mercy that is at work. Those who contribute to this are the friends of God, no matter from what strand of society or race they are drawn.

Paul says, that being a Christian is not merely a matter of words but of deeds done in the Spirit. We are to be imitators of Christ, models for all believers. We have seen political groups using the name, Christian, but who lack a basic understanding of Christianity. We have seen those who profess no faith but who work tirelessly for a better world.

May God Bless Us All .... Always!

From the Desk of Deacon Randy:

St. Henry's Church is purchasing the Joe & Delores Wasche residence to be used as the rectory because of the future building of the new school and the need to move the existing rectory. We will be closing on the house on October 30, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. We are looking for volunteers to help prepare the house for Fr. Matt to move in to by cleaning, vacuuming, and shampooing carpets that afternoon and evening. Please call the parish office if you are willing to help. The more help we have the faster the work will go. Also, looking for help on Monday, November 2nd, to move furniture and boxes, during the day or evening. Let us know if you are willing to help. God bless!

Dcn Randy

Catholic Charities

As we navigate the current pandemic, Catholic Charities of the Diocese of St. Cloud has continued its mission of serving and enhancing human dignity for people of all faiths and beliefs, while modifying its existing services and creating new ones. While COVID-19 affects our community, helping our neighbors experiencing hunger is now more important than ever. Missing work and an uncertain economy means families are missing meals. Understanding that not everyone who needs food assistance can safely access available services, Catholic Charities Emergency Services Food Shelf created an innovative approach for providing groceries to persons in need. Hunger Doesn't Wait, a new food delivery program for homebound individuals and households, provides food to persons with limited access to other food support. The program uses a home-delivery model, with local businesses helping deliver safely to households and with little to no contact. This week, you'll receive a mailing from Catholic Charities that includes a story about Erica who benefited from Hunger Doesn't Wait. Please take a few minutes to read her story and learn more about this new food delivery program. They invite you to visit their website at ccstcloud.org to learn more about how Catholic Charities is making a different tomorrow for individuals like Erica throughout Central Minnesota.

World Mission Sunday

Today is World Mission Sunday, a day when we celebrate responding to the call to Mission with the words, "Here Am I, Send Me." Our prayers and sacrificial gifts to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith through the St. Cloud Mission Office today support the efforts of clergy, religious and lay missionaries striving to act upon the call to love and serve as Christ around the world, as they offer practical, emotional and spiritual support to communities, children and families in need in 180 countries primarily throughout Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands and remote regions of Latin America. If you forgot your World Mission Sunday envelope, you can send it to the parish office or directly to the St. Cloud Mission Office at: 11—8th Avenue So., St. Cloud MN 56301. Thank you for your prayers and support for mission today!

Cremated Remains Collection & Burial

Do you have cremated remains of a family member in your possession that you would like to have laid to rest in a sacred place? Proper burial helps us grieve and find closure while we show respect for the life and remains of our beloved dead. As a free service to our community and those who have died, the Church of St. Ann in Wadena, MN is collecting cremated remains of deceased members who have not yet been buried. On November 2, 2020, at 9:00 a.m. we will have a Memorial Mass for all the dead, with special prayers for the collected remains. A private burial of the collected remains will follow at Calvary Cemetery. St. Ann's Church will absorb the cost of the burial, so this is free to you. Cremated remains must be more than 18 months past date of death, need not be Catholic or from the area, and must be accompanied with paperwork. For more information, contact Barb at 218-632-7309 or bpiecek@saintanns.net.
