Bishop's Annual Appeal
Supporting and nurturing families are essential ministries of the Church that are supported through your gifts to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Please prayerfully discern a donation to support diocesan ministries like youth faith formation and marriage preparation and family life. To donate: visit www.stcdio.org/annualappeal; mail to Bishop's Annual Appeal, PO Box 1538, St. Cloud, MN 56302; or use the courtesy envelope included in the June edition of The Central Minnesota Catholic.

Ephesians Bible Study
In this 8-session program, presenter Jeff Cavins explores what Paul's letter to the Ephesians tells us about the nature of the Church-–as a body, as a household, as a mystery, as a communion, as a bride, and as an army. Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance shows the treasures that await us as adopted sons and daughters in the family of God.

The study will start Monday, July 15 at 6:30 pm in the JPII Conference Room. We will watch 25 minute video by Jeff with discussion to complete the evening by 8:00 pm each Monday.

Please call Cheryl Prososki 763-360-0945 or Parish Office at 346-4240 to register by July 5 to able order materials in time. The Study materials cost is $22.

Widows' Group
The Widows' Group will be meeting the second Thursday of every month at 4:00 pm at St. Henry's Church. Please join us. If you have any questions, or for more information, please contact Judy Christopherson at 298-0797 jc.myrock@hotmail.com or Char Holzer at 298-0646 benchar@arvig.net.

Religious Freedom Week
Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation. Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope.

Learn more at www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek

Please join us for Mass on June 22, 2019 at 5:00 pm at St. Ann's in Wadena to pray for Religious Freedom. Bishop Kettler will be celebrating Mass with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament to follow.

Parking: During road construction, parking is available in the school playground. The North Entrance parking lot is reserved for the handicapped and elderly. Thank you.

Scripture Reflection by Father Matt

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ Jesus,

Conflict seems to be an inevitable part of living in community. As soon as we have two people with two separate wills, those wills are going to disagree on something. But this need not be so. The Holy Trinity, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, exist together in perfect society in unity of will and action. Perfect community is not only possible but is the goal for us set by Jesus in the sending of the Holy Spirit. We are called to rise above our pettiness and self-seeking so that we might grow together in imitation of the Trinity.

Conflict now can make us grow and learn so that we will eliminate conflict in the future. Conflict forces us to humble ourselves and work together for the greater good. We learn patience, bearing with one another. We learn courage to speak up when we need to defend our principles, and prudence for when we ought to remain silent and bear small crosses. The little things are bearable because of the greater good that we receive by living in community with one another.

This is what Saint Paul describes for us as the action of the Holy Spirit within us as we endure hardships. "We even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." The conflict in our society, just or unjust, can be an occasion of spiritual growth for us. The Holy Spirit can raise us out of our conflicts and into a life of virtuous union.

The perfect oneness of the Trinity is possible because the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are perfectly united. The Trinity is our model and our hope for success, as the same Father, Son, and Holy Spirit aid us in forming our human wills. We learn from the Spirit to discard lesser desires and unite ourselves in pursuit of higher goods. As our character develops greater virtue, we can more closely resemble the Trinity, until our Church community here on earth shines with the same unity and joy as the Trinity in heaven.

So if we find ourselves in conflict with one another today, use that conflict as an excuse to grow in virtue. Instead of pettiness or spite, let us react in a virtuous way, calling upon the Holy Spirit to provide the grace we need to rise above the conflict and seek solutions together that will bring us all closer to Christ Jesus. Let us celebrate the Holy Trinity by imitating the oneness of spirit that makes the Father, Son, and Spirit rejoice in each other and work together in all things.

Peace in Christ,
Father Matthew Kuhn
